We stopped here for a fish and chip meal and were pleased with the choice available from traditional fish to a variety of pies, side dishes, and sausages. Waitressing staff were friendly and efficient and we observed tables being promptly cleared and cleaned between diners. The take away section of the cafe was doing a roaring trade but this did not detract from service to diners. Toilet facilities here were very c... read more. What

mikedweymouth doesn't like about The Sea Chef:

Visited on the bank holiday Monday when the Manager/Owner a big large old bloke started shouting at staff across the restaurant, the poor little girl was reduced to tears in front of customers. Not professional or the correct way to treat staff. The fish was mediocre and nor appealing but the chips were ok. read more.
