Fabulous Italian restaurant. Great food and very friendly, polite staff. We had beef stroganoff and spinach and ricotta cannelloni, both were superb. Desserts were equally as good. Can recommend the tiramisu and the salted caramel and chocolate cheesecake. We walked from Tatenhill through the water park then along the canal. Then back via Battlestead to Tatenhill. A lovely little 5km stroll on a summer's evening! read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is free WiFi. If the weather conditions are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What charlmcgowan123 doesn't like about The Bridge At Branston:

Visited for Mother's Day. Heard really good things about how it used to be-authentic Italian, the food today was not that. Deep fried mozzarella was just frozen mozzarella sticks with tomato sauce, pizza was dripping with grease and it was a veggie option with no meat! Desert, the cheesecake was either off or not set as was really runny, the chocolate ice cream was absolutely disgusting and tasted like crunchy dust!... read more. At The Bridge At Branston in East Staffordshire, crispy pizza is baked fresh using a traditional method, In addition, the sweet desserts of the restaurant shine not only in the eyes of the little guests. Additionally, you're in for original Italian cuisine inclusive of tasty classics like pizza and pasta.
