Not the easiest to find but well worth the effort. Great food, locally sourced. Great service VFM. Highly recommended and very gluten free conscious. Lovely coffee too! read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, and there is free WLAN. What peterv642 doesn't like about Maria's Cafe: We were staying in the area and decided to pop in for breakfast. The food is delicious, however the gentleman who brought us our food and the bill seemed totally disinterested in what he was doing. On arrival I asked for a table for two, he just pointed to a table. When we had just finished eating he came to our table and took sauce bottles for other diners to use without saying a word to us, a tad rude of him. On asking... read more.
