Visited with members of my walking group for Sunday Carvery. Excellent food and great value. Staff very friendly and serious about COVID precautions. More people should discover this place. Have lived in this area for 35 years and had never visited before. read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is free WiFi. If the weather are right, you can also eat outside. What EbbwValeTessie doesn't like about The Malt House:

Called in here after visiting Castle was a bit quiet but we need some lunch i had sausage and mash which to be fair was good but at i think £11.30 way over priced my partner i think had scampi cant remember price that wont be returning read more. Just eating and drinking is too ordinary for you? Then a visit to this sports bar is just right: in addition to small snacks and dishes you can watch the latest football matches, tennis or Formula 1, The meat is freshly cooked here on an open flame. It goes without saying that a suitable drink completes a meal; therefore this gastropub provides a diverse selection of delicious and local alcoholic options, be it beer or wine, Particularly fans of the English cuisine are excited about the large diversity of traditional menus and love the typical English cuisine.
