I was born and brought up in France Lynch but left some 40 years ago to see the world a trip down memory Lane took us to the Kings Head for lunch. It's changed a bit, 2 bars have become one it's warm and bright, and does food things have moved on! It was so nice to see it's still a village pub with a lunchtime trade we had the scampi and it was excellently cooked and a decent pint to go with it. Retired and living in... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What TERRY L doesn't like about Kings Head:

Hard to find and get to by car narrow lanes all around we had stopped here some years previously while walking. Staff are friendly and beer was very good Doombur and Stroud Budding were perfectly cellared but this is a small pub in a difficult location so not busy we had options of scmpi and chips or curry so we had one of each. Both were adequate but not overly appealing. The attraction os the lovely peaceful locati... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: Kings Head in Stroud traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a delicious Trifle, Naturally, you should also taste the delicious burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges provided.
