best value for money they take around, all the dishes I have tried are at an exceptional standard and at a very fair price with good offered on, recommend it to each read more. What mattbD3756RF doesn't like about Taste Of India:

Terrible, i have had a few from here with no problems but won't be again. Onion Bhajjs were soggy and had a taste i have not experienced before. The chicken pieces were stringy and had no substance. Decided against eating it. Won't be using this take away again. read more. At Taste Of India in Salford, a selection of tasty dishes with traditional Indian spices and sides like rice or naan are freshly prepared, Besides, the inventive blend of different menus with new and partially adventurous ingredients is appreciated by the visitors - a good case of Asian Fusion. The dishes are prepared authentically Asian, the restaurant serves but also meals from the European context.
