Popped in on a freezing cold Sunday afternoon and were served by a very welcoming barman and sat by a lovely warm fire. The pub is located and accessed on a corner and the bar stretches from left to right. The wood flooring gently slopes up to the left. Nicely decorated with character and I believe rooms are also available. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather. What BlazeFielding doesn't like about The Westgate:

On Saturday 23rd Oct I ordered a Korean chicken burger with fried chicken, gem lettuce, kimchi and jalapenos, but what I got in my burger instead of the kimchi was coleslaw with chili sauce, which is not kimchi at all. The lettuce was nowhere to be found either. My friends also got burgers, which came with a side of coleslaw and chips. After bringing us the dishes and just before shooting off, the waitress asked if w... read more.
