We popped in here on a Sunday night just for a quick drink, there was plenty of room to find a table even though quite a few people were eating. As you enter the courtyard area the bar to the right is mainly for the hotel and the normal pub bit is to your left. We looked at the menu to be nosy and it was all reasonably priced and from what we saw it looked very tasty. We would definitely call in here again and maybe... read more. You can use the WiFi of the establishment at no extra cost, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink.

What User doesn't like about White Hart:

The White Hart is a cozy place close to the city centre and the cathedral with many corners and crèches to relax for a drink or a meal and a hidden outside the courtyard "secret garden". The staff is friendly and the service is fast, but not rushed. I went to dinner with a non-veg partner and there were several options for both of us. There is also a veggie option for the Sunday roast. I had the lasagna (approx. £7)... read more. If you're craving for some fiery South American culinary arts, this is the place to be: tasty menus, prepared with fish, seafood delicacies, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, Among the guests, especially flavorful juices are highly sought after. Of course, the most various products are also used in the most extraordinary combinations and variations - according to the motto of the Fusion Cuisine in the culinary offer, The successful fusion of different meals with fresh and occasionally daring products is highly valued by the visitors - a nice example of Asian Fusion.
