While on a 5day coach tour to Eastbourne i caught the service bus to Brighton and came into The harvester at Brighton and took advantage of set lunch meal which i enjoyed very much and it was nice to vist a harvester again as one which was close to here I live has been closed read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. WLAN is available at no extra cost. What Julie H doesn't like about The Madeira:

Absolutely awful. Wrong meal brought to the table so returned, then ten minutes later the same meal was brought again. Another guests food was stone cold. The family opposite had an even worse experience and half of them didn't even get their food. We all refused to pay and left. I'd never go there again read more. The Madeira from Brighton and Hove is a good option for a bar if you want to have a drink after work and hang out with friends, the menu also includes delectable vegetarian meals. Without doubt, the right drink enhances every meal; with this thought in mind, this gastropub offers a wide diversity of delicious and regional alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, Particularly fans of the British cuisine are excited about the large variety of traditional dishes and love the typical English cuisine.
