Popped in during our short stay in the town (we'd been for a jaunt on the railway). The home made food was delicious and the service faultless. Quite surprised by other people's negative remarks here on TripAdvisor. Very glad we went first and read about it later or we might well have given it a miss. read more. When the weather is nice you can also be served outside. What butchNottsUk doesn't like about Eco-caffe:

Before i write the review I'd like the owner not to take it personal. Its an observation. And if you can't take reviews you shouldn't be on trip advisor. As this is others peoples personal experiences. Food- Really good, fresh and hot. Had to wait a while but this didn't bother us too much. Service-Signs are everywhere about what to do. But to be honest not in the right place, so get missed. When you walk into a cafe... read more. A visit to Eco-caffe is particularly valuable due to the large variety of coffee and tea specialties, Here you'll find sweet pastries and cake, simple snacks and chilled refreshments and hot drinks. Additionally, there are a plethora of iconic British menus on the menu guaranteed to satiate every Anglophile's hunger.
