2 x house special fried rice and sweet and acid chicken balls. the rice was very delicious with mixed meat and vegetables. the chicken balls were more like minifilets that I preferred. the sweet and acidic sauce was very good. it was a little annoying that they had to pay money. but there's a point right next door. will be a returning customer. What GordonC1311 doesn't like about Hong Kong Chef:

This was my first time buying a takeaway from this establishment. The egg fried rice was stodgy all the grains were mashed up. The chicken was so dry and rubbery and tasteless we could not eat it. I will not be going there again. read more. In Hong Kong Chef from Peterborough, expect versatile, fine Chinese cuisine that's traditionally cooked in a wok.
