Went with a group of work friends for an occasion and we had to pre order as it was a large table. I selected the chicken pie, and when it arrived it was chicken and chorizo, which I felt was odd flavouring and not something I would have ordered if I knew this upfront. The mash was gloopy and chewy, and unfortunately it just is not a meal I would recommend to others. Such a shame as I think everyone else enjoyed thei... read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: Minster Tavern in East Cambridgeshire traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle, And of course, you should also try the scrumptious burgers, with sides such as fries, salads, or wedges provided. At the bar, you can also relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, The guests of the establishment are also thrilled with the large selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers.
