What User likes about Falafel Al Hana: for the first time on the market of grainger and really enjoyed it. great to see the products of real metzgern, fish dealers and obstinate and sweet. also mention some large street food shops including a fab chinese dumpling place and geordie bangers just two. in any case worth a visit. read more. What JPBee doesn't like about Falafel Al Hana:

We visited this restaurant inside Grainger Market for a quick bite. There weren't many customers in and the seating spills out in the main walkways so people were constantly walking past us. It's not the most comfortable place to dine in that respect. We all ordered chicken wraps with chips which were nothing special but filled a hole. read more. For those who want to a beer after work and sit with friends or alone, Falafel Al Hana from Newcastle upon Tyne is a good bar, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and varied variety of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try. Furthermore, they offer you fine meals in French style, The palate also enjoys easy digestible Mediterranean menus that are available.
