Had a lovely experience at the spread eagle on Sunday. Booked a table for X6 with family from London. The atmosphere was great. All the staff were very accommodating and food beautiful tasty and hot. We were all impressed at the service and will come again. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations. Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What Catherine S doesn't like about The Spread Eagle:

A lovely pub but service is poor especially food and staff are very young and don't seem to know what they're doing, over priced and not good value for money read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Spread Eagle in North Tyneside traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle. You can take a break at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. It goes without saying that a suitable drink completes a meal; therefore this gastropub offers a diverse diversity of scrumptious and regional alcoholic options, be it beer or wine.
