Our first time at A la Russe for my birthday meal and it was basically perfect from them taking photos of the interior for me when I asked about the lighting, to allowing my friend to bring both my cake and balloon, doing themselves out of 4 desserts now that is the mark of a good restaurant, caring more about the customer experience than anything else. Marked difference to the Ivy which wouldn't allow a balloon las... read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, and there is free WLAN. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat outside. What Martin D doesn't like about Cornucopia Bistro:

Empty night very average starters one salmon only two tables in think they run out Fig not bad ,beef stroganoff some one needs to read recipes not as I know it .pudding apple Tarte Tatin below ave main course came in skillet on stone cold plate with rice on hence cold rice told waiter oh but the skillet was hot he said I have been round the world .France second home but no this is not good run by non French perhaps read more. The Cornucopia Bistro from Windsor and Maidenhead has meals on offer that are typical for Europe, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. After all, the environment also plays a role: In this regard, the bistro with its idyllic small size can create the right cozy atmosphere, The sugar-sweet desserts of the local also shine not only in the eyes of our little guests.
