Dined here whilst staying over for a long weekend. We had eaten out in Lampeter the night before at the local Chinese but my meal was ruined by having had a heavy lunch earlier that day. So as not to make the same mistake I kept things light with a garlic bread starter and Welsh rarebit main. The food was good and very good service from the young waitress. read more. The restaurant offers free WiFi for its visitors, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Falcondale in Ceredigion traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a fine Trifle, The visitors of the restaurant also appreciate the large selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer. In case you want to have breakfast, a tasty brunch is offered to you.
