very friendly place during the lock-off (enorme portions) they had a few lunch breaks and since then eaten there. traditional pub grub to reasonable trips, always perfectly cooked and presented. read more. What User doesn't like about The Queens Belbroughton:

we dived into the pub for light refreshments on a day and found the staff very rude and unwilling. they were obviously too busy to break from their village slavish and private sweat to provide any decent level of customer service. A...sign explained masks must be worn, but native and co-workers ignored that. in today's climate they would expect that small business custom, but not welcome them. we will avoid this esta...
