Marlborough Gate Bistro At Milton Keynes Theatre:

I was very impressed by a afternoon show. the whole venue is large and modern, with the wide range, which also extends to the theatre seats, there is a lot of space for a change! the whole show was comfortable and a great experience. the prices for drinks and snacks were exaggerated as always in a theatre, but the quality of production and venue apologised them more than normal. I will certainly return and would reco... read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations,

Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What 195Jaffacat doesn't like about

Marlborough Gate Bistro At Milton Keynes Theatre:

Where to start. The two course meal in this add on to the ticket price was good but expensive when drinks are £9.20 a glass of wine so with a tip over £50 for two people. The second part of the VIP experience was worse. On our previous trip to see 9 TO 5 (excellent show) we used the Ambassador Lounge and received a large G T as a welcome with nibbles and also in the interval. On our latest visit Kinky Boots again exc... read more.
