the drinks and desserts are much better than eating. mushroom pasta had no season and the duck was dry and also without season. some fresh herbs can go a long way (or at least some salt and pepper). eating is very beautifully presented, but only little taste. everyone on my table was disappointed and just eat to finish the teller. more beautiful place to spend a few hours. will probably return, but only for drinks. read more. When the weather is nice you can also eat and drink outside, and there is no-charge WLAN. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What TRAE B doesn't like about Slug Lettuce:

Chicken wings were burnt on the outside and I'm talking about all 3 of the kilo portions, almost like they were cooked in old oil from the Friday and Saturday busier nights. The peri peri chicken was dry, they charge a lot of money for these types of meals when Moon Under Water can also serve terrible food but at a cheaper price and the drinks are cheaper. read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: Slug Lettuce in Milton Keynes traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a sweet Trifle, Naturally, you should also taste the fine burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges provided. Furthermore, you'll find fine American dishes, like for instance burgers and grilled meat on the menu, They also present scrumptious South American menus to you in the menu.
