We were staying at the hotel and were very pleased to get a dinner reservation as they were busy. The service was very good and the wait staff were excellent. We chose the local fish and chips and were presented with a substantial meal that was full of flavour. The fish flakes were well cooked and simply melted in your mouth. A simple meal presented very elegantly. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is complimentary WLAN. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat outside. What Ladiessexgirl doesn't like about At The Kincaig Castle:

Afternoon tea Cannot fault the quality of the food or the wonderful room, BUT the experience was spoilt for us when charged over £3 for fresh tea. Tea is served in pots that go cold very quickly, and to be charged for more is just miserly. Other establishments cheerfully keep fresh tea coming. I know which I'd go back to..... Also, beware the service charge which is not mentioned on the menu, another negative. read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: At The Kincaig Castle in Highland traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a delicious Trifle, There are also some international dishes to choose from on the menu. There are also scrumptious dishes typical for Europe, Forbreakfast a delicious brunch is offered here.
