Dog friendly hotel bar, our room was large, very clean, comfortable bed, good shower etc. very good Scottish breakfast, all the staff we met were very welcoming, polite friendly. The only slightly negative I would say is that the hotel is a bit dated, especially the bedroom doors and the paintwork along the corridors could do with some TLC read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather.

What MattStewart doesn't like about George Abbotsford:

Hotel is tired, with decor pretty shabby. Service was just about okay with very little chat from the staff and this morning at breakfast casual dressed waitresses serving. My room was clean with a great shower and comfortable bed, the drawer unit front was loose and hanging. Breakfast was the worst I've had in a long time, a full Scottish with sausage and black pudding that had obviously been cooked long ago as they... read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: George Abbotsford in Scottish Borders traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a delicious Trifle, At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
