I and my sister visited today, I had the light breakfast and she had the plower, both meals were nice and also filled, although smaller. the lady who owns the caffe is friendly and accumic. worth for money. would recommend read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about The Tea Rose Cafe:

After we entered and worn our masks and were told to use the nhs app, we sat down and ordered 2 coffees. 2 minutes later, I was shocked by a few who came in with a dog who walked around the tables. Dogs... if not allowed in food facilities, it is unhygienic and we are expected to use masks and handsanitisers. I was grateful that I didn't order any food. I don't want to say I won't go back, or recommend to others. read more.
