What sa1gon likes about Penny Hedge: We called here after checking out a couple of local pubs, but finding they either weren't wheelchair friendly or had little or no parking. When we arrived it looked very busy, but I queued to request a table. We were told as we hadn't booked and we weren't staying at the hotel attached, we would have at least a 45 minutes wait. We decided to wait. It was about 35 minutes later when we were told a table was ready, We... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is complimentary WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What Neil50y doesn't like about Penny Hedge:

This place is horrific and overpriced! The food was cooked and better cooked. It came out cold and had to send part back to get heated up. Staff are slow even with a near empty place so Christ know what it would be like full. Seriously the manager needs to address these problems! read more. At Penny Hedge in Scarborough you can taste delicious vegetarian courses, that are free from any animal meat or fish, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. The burgers of this place are among the highlights and are usually served with filling sides such as chips, salads or wedges, Moreover, the drinks menu of this gastropub offers a good and especially comprehensive diversity of beers from the region and the world that are definitely worth a try.
