Here you can find the menu of Chimes in Craigavon. At the moment, there are 15 courses and drinks on the card. Chimes Café in Portadown is becoming a notable choice for locals seeking a pleasant escape, especially given its proximity to a bus stop. While the restaurant generally impresses with its good food, welcoming atmosphere, and attentive service, some patrons have experienced hiccups, including unexpected pricing and slow service during peak hours. The menu features delectable items like Cajun chicken sourdough toasties and chicken Caesar salads, enjoyed in a relaxed setting free from loud music. Overall, Chimes maintains high hygiene standards and a friendly vibe, making it a strong contender among the growing competition in the area.
