after a bit of shopping I call in this wee gem for a coffee and something to eat. the service was not good, and the food was nice. well done they keep the good work. I will call soon read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Chimes:

Good service, atmosphere and food. However, four slices of toast cost £6.00. I felt that was way too expensive and I'd no way of telling until I was paying as it's not detailed on their menu. Not good customer service if you happen to query the price and I waited until I'd paid before doing so, in case they thought I'd not pay. Honestly £6? read more. A visit to Chimes is particularly valuable due to the large diversity of coffee and tea specialties, here they serve a comprehensive brunch in the morning. Additionally, there are a plethora of iconic British dishes on the menu guaranteed to satiate every Anglophile's hunger, there are also tasty vegetarian dishes in the menu.
