This warm and friendly cafe has been much missed since it closed down as a result of covid. Just visited for the first time since it re-opened under new management and the food is as well cooked as it used to be and the welcome and service have not changed either. Both are first class. Angelina's still represents good value for money even after two years of shutdown. They have several good ideas for improving the caf... read more. What

User doesn't like about Angelina's:

Ordered a chicken salad sandwich on brown bread and a pasta salad. Waited 25 minutes to then be told the order hadn't been placed and Got asked what my original order was. I got an incorrect sandwich on white bread and tuna with a sprinkle of lettuce no pasta. Not happy won't be coming back read more.
