the weather conditions is good you can also be served outside, and there is free WiFi. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about The King Arthur:

First problem dog UNfriendly, despite having three separate areas all with hard floors. Ok I accept that not everyone likes dogs but they could easily restrict them to one area. But what topped it off was the barman getting the order wrong and then blaming me. He was surly enough without that. Acts as though it has a good reputation and has to do nothing whatsoever to maintain it read more. If you want to have a drink after work and hang out with friends, The King Arthur from Swansea is a good bar, for breakfast they serve a varied breakfast here. Furthermore, there are several typically British meals on the card that give every Englishman abroad the feeling of being at home.
