Ordered food for the family, not a big order. One of the items was a doner kebab, a tray of doner meat was brought, no pitta bread. Phoned and told them and they said they'd drop one off, they then called back and said it would be a while until they could drop it off. I replied that the meat would be cold by then and they should replace the whole kebab, they then started to get very funny with me. They even said the... read more.
