stunning location, very clean, eating was nice, staff very nice. it was a bit too bulky for my dear, tartan wallpaper etc. it is everywhere, just a bit too much. the earthed 1970s/80s music in public areas is also somewhat strange.

small points, although in an otherwise fantastic package. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Cluanie Inn:

Such a special location but such a dreadful place. How sad that they should have gotten it so wrong here. No draft beer available on tap so they charge £7 for a bottle of beer. They don't sell crisps but are happy to sell you french fries for £5. Loud music playing (Abba) added to the sad state of the place. Such a mess and so disappointing. It used to be so much better before the makeover. Best avoided. read more. A roundtrip through

Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: Cluanie Inn in Highland traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle, In the morning they serve a tasty breakfast here. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, You shouldn't miss the opportunity to try the crispy and crunchy pizza, baked fresh in an original manner.
