This is the second time I've eaten here in the last couple of weeks. We travelled to visit the in-laws and had the most amazing roast dinner! Large portions and the brisket was cooked beautifully! The second visit we had scampi and chips, again a very large portion, great value for money! Food was amazing! Staff very friendly, will insist on coming here every time we visit! read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also eat outside, and there is complimentary WiFi. What User doesn't like about The Red Lion:

Very disappointed, only 2 pubs in the village and there is definitely room for both, if they "upped their game". Pub was empty even though the rugby was on (other pub was still full). Lamb and chicken curry was hot but sauce tasted like it was out of a packet. We couldn't eat all our meal and left only after 40mins, on leaving there was only 2 customers in the pub and it was only 8.15! read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Red Lion in Stratford-on-Avon traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a fine Trifle, At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
