Last minute decision to have dinner at Amans, as we are local in Lowton. Despite the restaurant being busy, we were seated and drinks order taken promptly (Kingfisher on draft). The staff and the service were excellent. We skipped the poppadoms and went in for samosas and bhajis for starters, followed by mushroom bhuna and a vegetable dhansak for mains. The food was freshly prepared and delicious. Amans is a really g... read more. Not like it used to be. Tabled crammed in like sardines, no way can you have a private conversation. The noise level made it impossible to hear your partner. So many customers because of too many tables made service very slow. Gof my order wrong, i didnt complain because there would have been a longer wait. I did make them aware afterwards but they insisted that they were right and had served me the correct dish. In... read more.
