What User likes about The Sportsman Club: top venue with excellent staff and service without wall. always enough staff to cover the events brought various guests from yorkshire to observe the albion and every single cash that no one wants to rehearse the food and the beer selection. read more. When the weather is nice you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about The Sportsman Club: Ordered my curry and rice, and it came very cold. I asked for a new warm one, it came back mixed together with rice and microwaved (awful food standards). I asked for a refund to which they gave me back attitude and started speaking about me with other staff members. Please everyone avoid this place, there are so many better options nearby!
