I came here about six years ago. I'm uncertain if the same staff works here, but I was only 17 at the time and in a homeless home and my 15 years old brother lived with me. we were both in training and I literally had no opportunity to feed him. I came here to share a bag of chips for us (our only meal of the day) and since it was near the closing time of the chip shop gave us loads of free means of life. they were n... read more.
