My family have been coming here for many years. I live outside of Bolton now and had not visited since the change of owners my meal was just as good as it used to be. I do not say lightly as someone of Chinese heritage that this is probably the best Chinese restaurant food I have ever had; portion sizes are great, reasonably priced and a great atmosphere inside will definitely return many more times. read more. When the weather is good you can also eat outside. What User doesn't like about Bambu:

Sadly since the old chef has left the food has gone down hill, the food isn't piping hot anymore, hardly any veg in the meals, just a few carrots and a bit of broccoli, smaller portions, everything just seems to have been done on the cheap side and you can really tell especially for us old customers. The meat is nowhere near as good quality and the flavours just aren't there, will only be a matter of time until people... read more.
