Beautiful surroundings with excellent service and furnishings. The menu was varied although the dessert menu was very limited. The ambience was spoiled by the strong smell of cooking fish during our meal even though we were not too near the open kitchen. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, and there is no-charge WiFi. If the weather are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What georgewK1869JH doesn't like about Chez Roux:

Small number of choices on the menu. Compared to when we were last here about a year ago. This can be a good sign but wasn't this time. My guess is that the current chefs don't have a full set of capabilities for short notice choice. Good sized portions but not the same quality of taste in our view. read more. Typical European dishes, that's what the Chez Roux from Stirling offers, here they serve a comprehensive brunch in the morning.

Furthermore, they deliver you delicious meals in French style, Those who are passionate about the English cuisine will enjoy the large selection of traditional dishes and indulge in the taste of England.
