We enjoyed an excellent family lunch at this attractive restaurant. The service was very friendly and accommodating and the food was inventive and interesting, beautifully presented and very tasty. The restaurant was very child-friendly too. My husband had the fish and chips, which was a generous portion and very enjoyable. My steak and ale pie with a twist was also very tasty. The desserts were excellent too. The po... read more.

Inattentive service for us I afraid after this being a favourite of ours which is disappointing. The Sunday Lunch was the worst ever for the price, awful roast potatoes like reheated new potatoes shown some oil, scant vegetable offering with rock hard broccoli, so much could not cut. Owner not happy with comments made at all by her attitude. read more.
