Booked a table at the Cherry Tree the week before we were to travel to Scotland from Derbyshire. We needed a dog friendly pub which this is. On the day we travelled up, they had to shut the kitchen due to a staff injury, however they honoured our booking.. We've just had the best service and a lovely pub meal. The dog was brought her own water bowl too. Couldn't have been more friendly. Good atmosphere too. Great val... read more. The restaurant offers free WiFi for its visitors, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: Cherry Tree in North Lanarkshire traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a delicious Trifle, for breakfast they serve a tasty breakfast here. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
