Visiting on a quiet Monday evening to celebrate a friends birthday...we arrived to be shown into the sitting room with a blazing log fire. The menu was very tempting varied with lots of delicious dishes to choose from. The food was delicious beautifully presentedquality outweighed quantity which is just as we like it. We thoroughly enjoyed a wonderful well balanced 3 course dinner at a really excellent good val... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What MissBeePee doesn't like about The Priory:

We booked here for lunch for the two of us after our wedding on the recommendation of the local registrars office. Kind of wish we'd researched as it really is average in every way. Bog standard menu with all the usual predictable things, average prices (about £60 for two with two glasses of wine), food acceptable. Wouldn't go back. Yorkshire has two of the world's best restaurants and dozens of other fine dining est... read more. In the morning, you can enjoy a rich brunch at The Priory, freely at your own will, Particularly fans of the British cuisine are excited about the extensive selection of traditional meals and love the typical English cuisine.
