We visited this café twice. Both times the food was freshly cooked and very good. Their scones were big and full of flavour. All staff members were friendly and helpful. The shop provided a source for some unique Christmas presents and we bought several bottles of the Arran gold liquor read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. WLAN is available at no extra cost. What geismom doesn't like about Casks:

We arrived around 2:00 PM and found the cafe filled to capacity. Had to wait about half an hour for a seat for two to open up for us. I was all excited to try the soup of the day, but the chalkboard featuring the daily features was erased prior to us ordering, as the specials of the day had been depleted. The menu is limited, and I have a paprika/pepper allergy, so my options are usually few to begin with nowadays. S... read more. In the morning, you can enjoy a appetizing brunch at Casks, freely at your own will, The visitors of the restaurant also appreciate the comprehensive selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. Additionally, there are a plethora of iconic British menus on the menu guaranteed to satiate every Anglophile's hunger.
