Here you can find the menu of William Florence in Norwich. At the moment, there are 26 courses and drinks on the card. Located in a bustling area, this restaurant presents a charming ambiance marred by inconsistent culinary experiences and pricing that some patrons find steep. While a few diners rave about the attentive service and vibrant atmosphere, particularly during special events like bottomless brunches, others lament the lack of variety on the menu and the execution of dishes. Signature items such as the chocolate fondue receive mixed reviews, and issues like cold or underwhelming mains underscore a need for improvement. Overall, while the service shines and the atmosphere is lively, guests recommend tempering expectations for the food quality relative to its price.
