User likes about Kimo's:

I came here a lot as a child in the early 2000's and I'm glad to see that even 20 years later the quality is still fantastic. Came here for breakfast with my girlfriend and it was fantastic. I got the lambs liver breakfast and my girlfriend got the Mediterranean breakfast and we both loved our meals. You get a lot of food for your money as well, especially when you could easily pay double for a basic full English in... read more. As a visitor, you can use the WLAN of the restaurant at no extra cost, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Kimo's:

Used be quite cheap in here we used to be able to go here and get a meal for a family of 4 for less than £60 with starters. Went yesterday ordered top kebab pepperoni pizza cheesy garlic bread curry and rice hummus and halloumi came to £90 plus it was £2.20 for a can of coke rip off the price changes are silly I know the cost of living has gone up but think I'll go elsewhere next time read more. For quick hunger in between, Kimo's from Liverpool provides scrumptious sandwiches, small salads, and other treats, as well as cold and hot beverages,

You shouldn't miss the opportunity to try the crispy and crunchy pizza, baked straight out of the oven in an original manner. Of course, we must not forget the comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, Moreover, there are good to digest Mediterranean dishes available.
