It was our first visit to the Pheasant, and is somewhere we've always wanted to try. We went there for Sunday lunch and found it to be a very pleasant experience overall. The pub is everything you expect from a traditional countryside pub, and the service and food are of a good standard. The only negative was the cost, which was £16.50 for one course, which means that we wouldn't eat there on a regular basis because... read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, and there is complimentary WiFi. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Pheasant At Neenton:

Visited with my husband on a Saturday lunchtime, the pub itself is lovely with a log burner and it's dog friendly. The staff were polite and helpful. The food is good quality however its also a bit on the pricey side. As this was a special occasion that wasn't the problem, I just don't expect to pay nearly £80 for lunch and feel hungry still. The portions are far too small even offering a side of potatoes/vegetables... read more.
