many thanks to the seafarer for providing the excellent party tea for the birthday of my daughter on the brio swimming pool, northwich last weekend. the eating options were great and for all different age groups of children. the labelling of food choices for each child made a simple task to give the food 25 children. the food was ready in time and was pelled with many spicy (ketchup, mayonnaise, salty). I would highl... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about The Seafarer: we visited the seafarer on the bank holiday on Sunday. I ordered 1 fish and small chips. a small chip, a small fish and curry sauce on each. over 20 pfund. when the staff asked that fish had risen. I can say that the quality was good, but the price for such a small order was ridiculous. Seafarer management needs to remember that they only have people about the one time and they will never return. read more. Various fine seafood dishes are offered by the The Seafarer from Cheshire West and Chester, The menus are usually prepared in a short time and fresh for you. Not to be overlooked is also the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, Particularly fans of the English cuisine are excited about the extensive variety of traditional meals and love the typical English cuisine.
