we have been regular customers here since the 1990s, and now we are grown up and have children we still spend time. the food is cheap and of good quality and the staff is great. and above all the clientele are of good character. Sometimes, only occasionally, the customers at the bar can be a little vicious, which can be a little disturbing when they have young children with them. but this is a puzzle, it's a great pu... Poor customer service, the attitude of staff is extremely rude. They sound very bored and that it's a chore if you're asking for someone. We also asked to swap the ice cream in our dessert for custard, we were told we would have to pay for the custard as "it's tough if we don't want the ice cream" never have I experienced that before. I don't think I'll be returning. read more.
