Where do I start my review of this lovely restaurant? From the moment we entered we were made so welcome.

We had purchased a special deal via Living Social some months ago and were using the voucher before it expired. Our mains were delicious! The Cabernet Sauvignon house wine was very good too. We shared an Indian dessert option and I finished with a calypso coffee. The staff were very attentive and professional. Ov... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in pleasant weather. What Jason

Osgood doesn't like about Bengal Brasserie:

Booked a table, no problems, older gentleman took our order and he was brilliant I, there is a middle age bloke that seemed to of taken over through the night, but when me and my wife had finished our mains but still had Nann bread out the waiter decided to take our plates then wiping down the table while I was still eating the final nann bread, the last part of the service felt like they wanted us to go, even tho th... want to a cocktail after work and sit with friends or alone, Bengal Brasserie from Moray is a good bar,

Furthermore, the customers love the inventive combination of different dishes with new and partially experimental products - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion. Visitors also appreciate the use of original Indian spices, On the menu there are also several Asian dishes.
