highly recommended. 5* eat and cocktails to shave the taste buds! absolutely connected to this amazing place! fantastic personal and beautifully relaxed place! the menu speaks for itself and lets the mouth pour with decisions! freshly cooked and made to order. that will let you come back. and again xx read more. As a visitor, you can use the WiFi of the place at no extra cost, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. If the weather conditions are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What User doesn't like about Vertigo:

Booked 3 weeks in advance for the restaurant, Turned up ten minutes before our reservation And told to go away until 7.00, so we walked round the block and came back. They literally asked two ladies to vacate the table for us. We were seated and given a drinks menu. I asked for the food menu to be told meals were no longer being served. What on earth did they think I reserve the table for. Besides the rudeness i aski... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: Vertigo in Truro traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle, Furthermore, the guests love the creative combination of different meals with new and partially experimental ingredients - a good example of successful Asian Fusion. Of course, the right drink with a meal can be crucial; this gastropub provides a diverse diversity of fine and local alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
