had never visited a bad one since the new boys took over. I admit, chairs are a little hard. for the price they pay, I wouldn't expect any more. I like eating. always up always wiping side down. could do with the change of cake to something else, but fruit is on place. I and girls love it x read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about The Real China:

I visited the real china in bayswater, london and will never go there again. the customer service was terrible, there was no food or dessert available, and all the food was cold and runny (watery rice and chow mine.)

additionally was not the food delicious. I also found two haare in my food. it was so bad that I saw some customers go without paying. the meal cost me a total of £14. I really do not recommend this rest... read more.
