The restaurant is very pretty with glass doors opening to the pretty garden, we were lucky enough to have a table by one of them, very French atmosphere. The food was excellent for both starter and mains, the profiteroles however were very hard and not enjoyable. Overall though because the waitress and the owners were very sociable, and the atmosphere was great, we had a lovely evening and would definitely return. read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also eat outside. For those who want to have a drink after work and hang out with friends, At The Three Cocks from Powys is a good bar, here they serve a appetizing brunch in the morning. Without doubt, the right drink enhances every meal; with this thought in mind, this gastropub offers a large diversity of tasty and regional alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, Those who are passionate about the British cuisine will enjoy the extensive selection of traditional meals and indulge in the taste of England.
