We popped in for a treat after shopping and was pleasantly surprised. Buffet was a small choice but common dishes of chicken tikka, korma and masala a bonus. What was there was very tasty though curries could have been higher temperature, naan was crisp and chips dried but this wouldn't put us off returning as the rest was bang on. Very pleasant staff too with amazing decor and relaxing ambience. Hidden in what looks... read more.

The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. WiFi is available without additional charges. What User doesn't like about Ali Raj:

Received food an hour after arriving, every stage took too long, drinks, orders, everything! When it arrived, it was bland, a 'fiery' dish that didn't taste at all of chilli, the naan was old, the butterfly prawn soggy, rice the cheapest cash and carry rice: we all laughed after that we enjoyed our come and appletiser more than the food read more.

At Ali Raj in Carmarthenshire, a selection of delicious menus with typical Indian spices and sides like rice or naan are freshly prepared, On the daily specials there are also several Asian dishes. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Ali Raj. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known menus too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients taste.
