The Greyhound is a lovely hotel in the centre of Cromford. The food and service were excellent. The beef sandwiches were especially good, the beef was tender, tasty and served on a quality bread. Next time we are in the area, we will definitely return. However, I do think management need to rethink the choice of background music as the selection was rather odd considering the location, it ranged from pop to rap. read more. The restaurant offers free WiFi for its visitors, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What G1587UGpeterb doesn't like about The Greyhound Cromford:

The food doesn't really fit in with a gastropub label . Dishes unremarkable and side dishes need to be added. Wine expensive for what you get . Service good with a couple of good local cask beers .
